

Sunday AM Classes

Doctrines of Distinction

Teacher: Jeff Custer

Place: Fellowship Hall

Introduction: In the coming weeks this class will study biblical doctrines that are held to be true by New Testament Christians. The teachings to be studied include both foundational doctrines as well as teachings that are distinctive traits of the churches of Christ. If we understand these doctrines our faith will be strengthened and our ability to explain these teachings to our children, family, and friends will be enhanced.

Spiritual Health

Teachers: Glenn Barron and Sam Lowe

Place: Auditorium

Introduction: In the next several weeks we will be looking at the characteristics that are common to Christians who are mature in Christ. We want to identify ways we can improve our spiritual health by growing stronger in our faith, in our love for God, and in our love for one another. When we do these things we may see incredible changes in our relationships each other and within our community.

The Journey Class – Doctrines of Distinction

Teachers: Kirby Smith, Chris Suggs, and Justin Nunley

Place: Classroom 13 (in the balcony)

Introduction: The outline and content of this class will follow that of the Doctrines of Distinction Class. This class, attended by younger adults, will likely be more conversational but the topic covered will be identical to the D of D class.

Wednesday PM Classes

Study of the Book of Hebrews

Teachers: Ben Acock and Ric Morales

Place: Auditorium

Coffee House Discussions

Teacher: Jeff Custer

Place: Fellowship Hall

Introduction: This class generally has a different topic every week. Many of the topics are issues or suggestions from members of the class. This class is informal in nature and relies heavily on class participation.
